Sessoms Jewelry Provides New Flags for Our Course

Gary Wayne Hall (l), Randy Barefoot

Coharie Men's Golf Association President Randy Barefoot felt that providing new, high quality flags for our golf course would be an appropriate project for the CMGA.

He did some research, came up with a design he liked and placed the order. Then he faced the question of how much each CMGA member should contribute in order to pay the bill, which totaled nearly $850.

Gary Wayne Hall, who operates Sessoms Jewelry along with his wife Debra, settled that issue very quickly. "We'll pay for the flags," said G.W. And, with some help from one of his vendors, Gold Lance class rings, that's what he did.

"I've been a member of the club for 34

Bingo!!!

Faye and Doug Warren (above, L) were among those listening to caller Jackie Parrish (above) at Bingo last month. So were Jackie's wife Evelyn and her grandson Jake. This month's Bingo action is set for Thursday, Dec. 18th at 7 p.m. Come on out. In addition to the competition, there are refreshments and friendship.

HALLOWEEN HAYRIDE AT COHARIE

The kids get aboard (L), a kitty and a Cat (MacKenzie Barker), a scary spook (below, L) and a trick or treat invasion.

Oh, We Got Trouble!!!

Yessir, right here in River City. With a capital 'T' and that rhymes with 'P' and we aren't talking about pool.

Some of our guys, ever creative, don't break out the chess board or the Canasta cards when it's too cold outside to get up a golf game. Nor do they go home to rake leaves nor to cuddle up with the wife.

Instead, they recently raided the Family Fun Night toy bin and pulled out the game of Trouble®, featuring the "Pop-o-matic® die-rolling bubble!" After all, the box clearly states that the game is for players Ages 5 and up!

Our guys had no trouble understanding the instructions: "Give the Pop-o-matic bubble a smack and hop your pegs around the track! Land on an opponent's peg and bump it back home.

"Don't get your pegs bumped back or you're in Trouble®! Keep poppin' and hoppin' to get all 4 pegs to the FINISH line first and you win!"

The photos above illustrate the fierceness of the $2 per game competition. Mike Facciolini shouts "Eek!" after one of his pegs was bumped home. Ronnie Williams tries to control his stress levels. And, accident prone Gerry Gill pays particular heed to one of the box's instructions:

WARNING: Choking Hazard! Small parts. Not for children under 3 years.

And . . . We Got LIARS!!!

Yessir, right here in River City. And we aren't talking about pool this time either.

Instead, we are referring to an evening of dining and entertainment at the club on SATURDAY, JAN. 17th. It promises to be one of the more memorable nights in club history as some of our esteemed members, including at least one lawyer, indulge in a big "Liar's Club" contest. Can you imagine a lying lawyer? Come on out and be prepared to win a prize as you discover who is honest and who is not!

Details regarding the dinner menu, the price and the members of the Liars' Team will be provided in the January issue of the club's newsletter.

Start making plans now to join us on Jan. 17th.

Rick Contributes 20 Bucks to Help Buy New Flagsticks

Continued from Page 1 years," Gary said, "and I'm very proud to be part of the Coharie Community. I'm very happy to make any contribution that will improve our club."

General manager/golf professional Dickie Walters says the club owes Gary Wayne and Debra a huge thank-you. "Members like the Halls make Coharie Country Club such a great place," said Walters.

Since members of the CMGA didn't have to pay for the flags, Barefoot decided that the organization would pay for new flagsticks.

Each member, including the oh-so-generous Rick Reece, will contribute $20 toward the purchase of the bright, 8-foot high poles.

Men's Golf Association To Meet December 11th

The CMGA will hold its next monthly meeting on Thursday, Dec. 11th at 6:30 p.m. in the lounge. Call the club at 592-6745 as soon as possible to order your steak.

Among the topics on the agenda are an update on bunker restoration, the planned reverse drawing, landscaping status and drainage around No. 8.

President Randy Barefoot will bring the new flags and flagsticks for those members who have yet to see them.

Golf Shop News

The Southeastern Seniors will play at Coharie on Tuesday, Dec. 2 at 10 a.m.

Dickie is hosting a Christmas sale on Sat., Dec. 20 from 10 a.m. til 4 p.m.

Discounts of 20 to 50% will be offered on selected merchandise.

On Christmas Eve, the course will be open from 8:30 a.m. til 2:30 p.m., weather permitting. All operations will be closed on Christmas Day.

Thanksgiving Winners

Trent Mitchell, Jon Heard, Wade Fluckey and Ronnie Williams combined for 108 points to win the Turkey Day Shootout at the club.

Veteran Bob Yow put on the day's best show, shooting a 5-under-par 67.

Bob had a closest-to-the-pin on No. 3, and won skins with birdies on 9, 16 and 17.
