Will Waters is Club's New President

Will Waters was elected president of Coharie Country Club Inc. by the board of directors during a meeting following the annual Stockholders' Meeting last month.

Waters, who was the club's vice president in 2008, is expected to serve a one-year term.

He succeeds Bill Dunlap, who is entitled to participate as an ex-officio board member for the rest of the year.

Waters and his twin brother Stephen are the sons of Coharie members Nelson and Carolyn Waters. Both Will and Stephen graduated from the University of South Carolina, where they were members of the Gamecocks' golf team.

Will is a managing partner with Harris-Crane Inc., a Charlotte-based company that is ranked the No. 1 commodities brokerage in the Southeast. He operates the company's satellite office in Clinton.

2009 Social Calendar Announced

Entertainment Committee co-chairpersons Wanda Coleman and Emily Pope have compiled the club's social calendar for the remainder of the year.

The next major event on the calendar is the club's Liar's Club Contest and Dinner of March 28th.

Other particularly significant events include the Easter Egg Hunt on Apr. 5; the Middle School Spring Fling on May 2; the School's Out for Summer Cookout on June 10th, July 4th; the Member-Guest weekend, Aug. 7-9; a Labor Day Picnic on Sept. 7; Trick or Treat on Oct. 30 and an assortment of parties during December.

Ice cream and cookies with Santa on the afternoon of December 6th will replace the Breakfast with Santa the club has held the last few years.

The schedule, along with the time and the event chairperson, is as follows:

Liar's Club Challenge/Dinner Party Moved to Mar. 28

With April Fool's Day on the horizon, it seems appropriate that Coharie CC gets things started with our first "Liar's Club" Challenge.

This contest was originally scheduled to take place in January, but due to some conflicts it was postponed.

This fun-filled adventure, which will test our ability to detect a liar when we hear one, is now scheduled for Saturday, March 28th.

Four of our fellow club members – a lawyer, an educator, a Mommy and a member of the medical community, try to convince us that he or she is the truthful one and that the others are notorious prevaricators.

Attendees may be surprised as to who is the "practiced tale teller" and who is innocently speaking "only the truth."

Your table gets to vote and, if you all are clever enough, win a prize.

This will be a great way to spend a Saturday night. Attendees will get a fine prime rib dinner and lots of laughs at the expense of our "honorable" team of fibbers.

Cocktails start at 6 p.m., dinner is at 7, while the lying begins at 9:00. The cost is $25 per person.

Dress is casual and tasteful – no tuxedos, no jeans; everything in between.

You need to make your reservations by March 20th so the caterer can order the best for us. Make reservations NOW by calling 592-6745 or by emailing reservations@cohariecc.com

CLUB SEEKING LIFEGUARD APPLICANTS

The club is now seeking lifeguards for the swimming season. Applicants must turn 15 years old on or before May 15th and should have current lifeguard and CPR certifications. Individuals pursuing certification may apply if lifesaving and CPR training is successfully completed prior to May 15th. Good character and strong work ethic are required.

The application deadline is April 4th. Please contact either Dickie Walters at the golf shop (592-2951) or Eva Thornton (214-6358) for additional information.

CMGA TO MEET MAR. 12

President Randy Barefoot has called a meeting of the Coharie Men's Golf Association for the evening of Thurs., Mar. 12th in the lounge.

If you plan to dine, call the club at 592-6745 as soon as possible to place your steak order. The meeting begins at 6:30.

BINGO SET MAR. 19

Jackie Parrish will host our monthly BINGO session on March 19th.

In addition to the possibility of winning cash prizes, attendees are treated to assorted refreshments.

MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

The following have been placed on the Inactive List at their request:

Non-residents Bo Heath, Kevin Sandy and Dan Aycock Jr. Regular members Hal and Anne Price and Gerry and Patsy Gill.

Pope, Lanier, Mason Now on Coharie Board attended stockholders' meeting, Emily Pope, Mike Lanier and Michael Mason were elected to three-year terms on the Board of Directors. They replace Dunlap, Marvin Mitchell and Helen Hobson, who have completed their terms in office.

Outgoing president Dunlap expressed his appreciation to the membership for their support during his time in office and gave special thanks to Jackie Parrish, who had served as interim general manager for the last few years. Dickie Walters is now serving as head golf professional and general manager.

Randy Barefoot, who was elected vice president during the meeting, went over the club's financial status with the attendees.

Board member Tommy Barker will continue to serve as club secretary for a second year.

President Waters announced the following committee chairmanships.

Finance: Mike Lanier.
Entertainment: Emily Pope and Wanda Coleman.
Pool: Eva Thornton.
Golf: Michael Mason and Randy Barefoot.

Membership: Will Waters and Charles Gainey.

Woodmen Golf Event Set for April 17th

The first big tournament on this year's golf schedule is the Woodmen of the World 4-Person tournament, which is slated for April 17th.

Because of the event's popularity, there will be dual shotgun starts – at 8 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

The entry fee is $240 per team, with the entry deadline set for April 15th.

For more information, contact the golf shop at 592-2951.

It should be noted that the Andy's Special Friends event, which was included in last month's scheduled, has been moved to another course.
